

Rocky Hock Playhouse

Washington, North Carolina

“Tech Theatre” Application

2011 Season

Mail, email, or fax this form to: Emmerich Theatre Production Co., Inc.
P.O. Box 322, Edenton, NC 27932 Phone: (252) 339-0518 (Toll Free) Fax: (866) 439-7418
E-mail: jeff@rockyhockplayhouse.com

Name: _____

Address: _____

E-mail: _____

Phone: () _____ Cell Phone: () _____

Current Student? Yes No Male Female Age: _____

Specific major in college: _____ Graduation/anticipated graduation date: _____

College you attend/attended: _____ City: _____ State: _____

Class standing (if a current student): Freshman Sophomore Junior Senior

Technical area in which you would like to work (check as many as you wish): House Manager
 Stage Manager Box Office Sound Lights Wardrobe Props Other

Specify other: _____

Would you like to use this opportunity as an internship? Yes No

What is your home town? City: _____ State: _____

Please send us:

- A current resume including all technical experience and where it was acquired.
- A current headshot or good photo of yourself.
- The names and numbers of three people we can contact who know you well. Please give us a cell phone number if at all possible or hours when the individual is most easily reached. Consider including:

1. Theatre manager or theatre professor/teacher.
2. Pastor/youth pastor or worker.
3. A former director.

Name: _____ Relationship: _____ Phone #: _____

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

P. 2 (ETPC Tech Theatre Application)

Please indicate the production(s) for which you are applying:

- Rocky Hock Gospel Jamboree* (must be available September 12 – October 15, 2011)
 A Star in the East (must be available October 31 – December 17, 2011)

Staff, cast, interns, and crew members at the Rocky Hock Playhouse must feel comfortable with the mission of the production company. Please read the mission statement below to be sure you agree with (and will abide by) the philosophy of the Rocky Hock Playhouse prior to pursuing employment or an internship with the company.

Mission Statement of the Emmerich Theatre Production Company, Inc., and
Rocky Hock Playhouse

The Emmerich Theatre Production Company, Inc., is an organization existing for the purpose of providing concerts, musicals, and dramatic productions at the Rocky Hock Playhouse in Washington, North Carolina. From time to time the company also produces musicals at other theatres and venues and in a variety of churches of various denominations across the US, its territories, and around the world. The playhouse is a ‘professional stock company’ by definition. High moral standards are expected from all employees, interns, and volunteers. All musicals and plays performed under the control of the Emmerich Theatre Production Company, Inc., are moral and family oriented in nature. Our goal is to honor God through drama and music and to assure that each patron has an uncompromising and wholesome experience while attending professional quality ETPC productions.

I agree I disagree with the policy and mission statement of the Emmerich Theatre Production Company as stated above.

Men and women are housed separately in Emmerich Theatre Production Company privately owned homes. (See our website for details.) Housing is provided for those who live outside the area.

All intern positions are paid. Interns are paid the same stipend for rehearsal weeks as they are for performance weeks.

Please call (252) 339-0518 if you have questions regarding this opportunity.

Ask to speak with Jeff Emmerich. Or, you may e-mail Mr. Emmerich at:
jeff@rockyhockplayhouse.com For additional details you should visit our website:

www.rockyhockplayhouse.com